Pine Needles

This is St. Valentine Day. You do not have to give or receive anything. Just carry the sentiment in your heart.

Our fellow-townsman, D. W. W. Johnson, has been selected as Food Administrator for the section embracing Monterey, Pacific Grove and Carmel. He is well qualified for the job.

Mark Edmunds, nephew of Miss Annie C. Edmonds, has arrived in France.

Outside of Californians, registrations to date show more natives of Michigan residing in Carmel than of any other State. Why not a Michigan society?

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Beardsley drove up to Oakland on Saturday, to be away about two weeks. Miss Mildred Allen remains here.

The Payne family have removed to Carmel Valley. The household goods were sent up last week.

Miss Ray C. Kablanc of Fresno, niece of Mrs. Norwood Lewin, spent the weekend here.

A "Friendly Afternoon," at Miss J. M. Culbertson's residence, Monte Verde and 9th, is to be held today at 2:30. There will be a programme "In Lighter Vein." Tea will be served, and a collection taken for the benefit of the Carmel Church Parsonage fund.

Mrs. A. F. Lonabaugh, and her sister, Mrs. M. Logan of Sheridan, Montana, are in the Jackson cottage for a month. Mrs. Lonabaugh was formerly the wife of Peter F. Hanna.

The Bird Club will meet next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. McDow. At the last meeting a member reported that many birds in this vicinity are starving; therefore request is made that crumbs and other waste food be fed the birds.

Leo Narvaez made the trip to Salinas yesterday to appear before the Exemption Board.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ede and William Ede Jr. are here from Piedmont. They are occupying the Duffy cottage and will remain indefinitely.

Definite announcement as to the opening day of the local public school will be made at the Pine Cone office Saturday.

N. R. Smith, the only bidder, has been awarded the contract for improving the Coast Road from the Carmel River bridge to Notley's Landing. The price is $3600.

Assemblyman W. J. Martin is mentioned as a candidate for Congress, to succeed E. A. Hayes.

"I'm very busy," says Gar Holme, who spent the weekend here, "but I just had to spend a few days in dear old Carmel."

Thomas H. Reed, in his address at Monterey last Thursday evening, urging the uniting of the communities of Pacific Grove and Monterey, said: "A community which depends on the saloons had better tie a rope around its neck and hang itself."

A copy of "Books and Authors" has come to hand, containing an article by G. L. Ruddy, entitled "The Forest Theatre at Carmel in California." In the same issue Mary Austin writes an appreciation of Prof. W. F. Bade's "Old Testament in the Light of Today."

The next literary afternoon at Arts and Crafts Hall, for the benefit of the Red Cross knitting fund, will take place on Thursday, February 21. Mrs. V. Mott Porter will read from her repertoire of Ancient Irish Legends.

J. O. (Black) Hayes has announced his candidacy for the nomination for Governor at the August primary. This may mean that E. A. (Red) Hayes will not be a candidate again for Congress.

Mrs. Lillie Hanson leaves for San Francisco this week. She takes steamer for Honolulu next Wednesday, and will be away two months. Here's to a pleasant voyage and a safe return!

Mrs. Kate Hunter left for San Francisco last Saturday, on her way to Sacramento to spend a month with Mrs. Wettig, her daughter.

TWO BITS

A Day Clubs

Out in Phoenix, Arizona, a movement has been inaugurated for the formation of Two Bits a Day clubs, the members of which are to buy a quarter's worth of Thrift Stamps every day. Three men each took a hundred Thrift cards, pasted one stamp on each card, and sold the entire lot before two blocks had been covered.

"Two bits" is the old term, dating back to the early days of the country, for a quarter of a dollar, and is still used in the South and West. Every patriotic American now wants to "do his bit." The members of these clubs are carrying out the idea finely in doing their "two bits" every day. It is hoped that "Two Bits a Day" clubs will be formed all over the country in the great war savings campaign.

In the interests of economy, on March 1, the Monterey and Santa Barbara national forests will be consolidated and administered by Supervisor J. R. Hall, with headquarters at Santa Barbara. Ranger H. H. Hunt will have direct charge of the Monterey district with headquarters at King City.

Mrs. Crocker and Mr. Floyd Glotzbach were the prize-winners in whist at the Manzanita Club's social affair Saturday evening. Both were presented with a "started" Thrift Stamp card.

A Well-Wisher

(Pacific Grove Review)

Today's Pine Cone marks the beginning of Volume IV. Brother Oversstreet is to be congratulated. The child is sure a healthy creature and gives promise of a useful life and a ripe old age. Carmel under the live administration of a live little newspaper will surely outgrow its early handicaps, having already become an incorporated municipality. Street improvements are scheduled as the next move, and sidewalks and other matters will come along quite naturally. Here's the Review's best wishes for a greater and better Carmel-by-the-Sea.

HOW GRUBSTAKE BECAME FORTUNE.

Probably the largest fortune that ever came from a very small grubstake was that at Tombstone mines, when Richard Gird got about $2,000,000 from a grubstake of a few hundred dollars and some scientific work. In 1873, Gird, who had been vainly seeking riches in mines for a dozen years in South America, and all over the Pacific coast, went down to southwestern Arizona. The Apaches were raiding and murdering at that time, and the territory was deserted by white settlers. Gird was told that he would get a tombstone rather than a fortune there. Hence the name Tombstone for the mines.

He found no trace of pay ore where he expected it, and was about to come back to southern California.

One morning he fell in with other prospectors, the Scheffelin brothers. They said they believed they had found rich ore, but they wanted to have it assayed before they would risk their lives in that Apache country digging for something that would not pay them. Gird was an assayer. He agreed to do the assaying at Tucson for the brothers free and to give several hundred dollars' worth of food and clothing for a third interest in the mines, providing the assay proved what he believed it would be. That was in May, 1879. Mr. Gird sold his third interest in the Tombstone mines in the following October, after the memorable stampede there of 10,000 miners from all parts of the Union, for $2,140,000.

THE ROAD TO HAPPINESS.

THIS is the Road to Happiness:
Start Now, from Where You Are.
Turn to the Right and keep straight on.
And you'll find it far.

Along The Path of Whiling Feet
And over Heartache Hill
Across the Fields of Sweet Content,
The Stream of Glad Good Will

Then through the Lane of Loving Heart,
The Gate that's called Today,
And down the steps to Little Things
Into the Common Way

And take the Cloak of Charity,
The Staff of Wise Employ,
A loaf of Bread of Daily Grace,
A flask well filled with Joy

A word of cheer, a helping hand,
Some good to give or share,
A bit of song, a high resolve,
A hope, a smile, a prayer

And in the Place of Duty Done,
Beside the Door of Home,
You'll find the House of Happiness,
For Happiness does not roam
—Annie Johnson Flint

A Successful Affair

The Lincoln's birthday party on Tuesday evening, held at the beautiful Johnson home, under the auspices of Saint Anne's Guild, was in every way an unqualified success. With the music of many new war records, dancing, card playing, fortune telling, and refreshments, a most delightful evening was spent.

WEEKLY GREETING

Truth-telling is one of the fundamental traits of righteousness, and indicates a truth-loving and truth-governed person. To deviate from the truth is to lose the respect of one's self and one's fellows. —Anon.

Poor Advice

The endeavor to dissuade individuals and public bodies from their plans to make necessary improvements—put up public buildings, construct roads, build bridges, erect homes, etc.—is ill-advised.

We are called upon to purchase Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamps—and we are doing so willingly and generously.

How, should building operations be suspended, is the contractor to acquire bonds and the mechanic to buy stamps, if the very means—contracts and work—by which they obtain the wherewithal to purchase these government securities are to be suspended?

Where They Stand

In common with the legislatures of other States of the Union, there will be presented to the California Legislature next January, to be ratified or rejected, the proposed amendment to the federal constitution providing for national prohibition.

It is the duty of those who desire that this amendment be ratified by our legislature to see that every candidate for election to the State law-making bodies make declaration whether, if elected, he will vote for or against the amendment, whether he is a "dry" or a "wet."

So far as we have been able to learn, but one candidate who will seek the Republican nomination for the Assembly in the district which embraces Monterey county has declared just what his attitude and vote will be regarding this amendment.

Force every candidate to come out in the open on this moral and economic issue.

Arts and Crafts Notes

The club is already laying plans for its next Summer School, and receiving inquiries from prospective students.

An appropriation to Syrian and Armenian relief, active prosecution of the food conservation campaign and war savings, and correspondence with Hon. E. A. Hayes in support of the Susan B. Anthony amendment, are evidence of the wide interests and usefulness of the club.

Since the entertainment of the Soldierettes in September, the club has given a Hoover recipe party, a Christmas play, a New Year break fast at Carmel Highlands, a reception to local and visiting artists on the occasion of the opening exhibition of their paintings to the public; and, for the benefit of the wool fund of the Carmel Red Cross chapter, has begun a series of Literary Afternoons.

The regular sections and committees work busily and harmoniously, requiring and expecting no comment; but modestly deserving of much praise. Local affairs are not neglected in the outreach toward world interests.

Mrs. Wermuth Passes to the Great Beyond

Now thou art laid to rest,

Freed from the world of strife;
Thou art with the Godly blest,
And hast eternal life.

One of the most pathetic and heart-rending incidents ever enacted here occurred last Sunday afternoon, when Fred Wermuth and his seven motherless boys passed through the portals of the Methodist church on their journey to the grave of their loved one.

After an illness extending over several months, Mrs. Lottie S. Wermuth passed to her reward last Thursday morning. The news of the sad event provoked a distinct and perceptible shock in the entire community.

The blow is a particularly severe one to Mr. Wermuth, inasmuch as only a few weeks ago he was called away by the death of his mother.

The esteem in which the deceased and the family are held here was testified to by the large attendance at the funeral services.

Following an impressive reading of the XXIII Psalm, Rev. Stephen C. Thomas spoke feeling of the mother-love of the deceased, and had words of comfort and cheer for the bereaved family.

Music was rendered by a quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hand, Mrs. F. C. Pudan, and S. J. Wyatt, with Miss J. M. Culbertson at the organ.

The pall-bearers were: John C. Mikel, George A. Riehl, Robert J. Laidig, Courtland J. Arne, Leon P. Narvaez, and Jesse E. Nichols. Interment was at Carmelo cemetery, Pacific Grove.

$1.50 pays for the Pine Cone for a year. Send it to a relative or a friend who is interested in Carmel and its doings.
